Carol Would Run Govt. on U. S. Business Plan

Desire To Put Kingship on "Purely Business Basis" Expressed in First Interview Since Flight into Exile.

(Copyright 1930 by International News Service)

BUCHAREST, June 19—King Carol II of Rumania, Europe's newest and most colorful monarch, wants to run his country the way an American industrial magnate runs his business.

In an interview with International News Service today, the new king outlined in detail his aims and ideals. Sitting behind his huge desk, Carol revealed his desire is to put kingship and politics on a "purely business basis."

It was the first interview Carol had granted to an individual correspondent since his dramatic flight from exile in France and seizure of the throne from his son, Crown Prince Michael.

King Carol received this correspondent in a tiny room on the second floor of the royal palace. A gigantic walnut desk took up almost all the available floor space, and the four walls were lined with filled bookshelves that reached from floor to ceiling.

The king's first words were almost apologetic.

"This," he said, signifying the tiny room with a sweep of his arm, "is my office."

His View of Job

"My conception of a king's job," he declared when the simple ceremony of introduction was finished, "is to sit down at a table with politicians and thrash out difficulties, to cut red tape, and act as arbitrator in clearing up a situation.

"That is the best way a king can aid his country.

"I have a horror of red tape. You in America have made 'efficiency' your watchword. I want the same word to be the slogan of Rumania."

Carol put his hand on a pile of papers and books on his desk.

"Since my return," he continued, "I have spent more than 15 hours daily at this desk trying to find out how best to economize in time, money and effort.

"That is the way the American businessman works, and my ambition is to run Rumania on a business principle.

"We all look toward America's business efficiency, and although I must say I haven't the least intention of 'Americanizing' my country, I am convinced that many of your customs, methods and habits would greatly benefit Rumania."

Favors American Education

King Carol said he wanted as many Rumanians as possible to go to America for education and broadening.

"I visited the United States in 1921," the monarch recalled, "and at the time investigated several colleges and universities. I found them excellent.

"Already I have a Carnegie Tech man on my efficiency staff, as well as several agricultural engineers from American universities."

At the conclusion of the interview, King Carol was asked whether it might be hoped that he soon would visit America.

The king rose from his chair and offered his hand.

"Nothing would give me more pleasure," he said. "I promise to find the first available opportunity to do so.

"But," he concluded, "as you say in America, I've got a big job on my hands right now."

RELIEF FROM CURSE OF CONSTIPATION

A Battle Creek physician says, "Constipation is responsible for more misery than any other cause."

But immediate relief has been found. A tablet called Rexall Orderlies has been discovered. This tablet attracts water from the system into the lazy, dry, evacuating bowel called the colon. The water loosens the dry food waste and causes a gentle, thorough, natural movement without forming a habit or ever increasing the dose.

Stop suffering from constipation. Chew a Rexall Orderlie at night. Next day relief. Get 24 for 25c today at the nearest Rexall Drug Store. O. G. Ungericht.—Adv.

"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound helped me during Change of Life. I had to lie down most of the time because I felt so weak and I could not stand the least bit of noise, I was that nervous. I felt blue and could cry if anyone looked at me. I could not sleep or eat but I am much better now and am able to work every day. I certainly do recommend the Vegetable Compound and I will write to any woman about it."—Mrs. J. James.

MRS. H. C. HENRY

"I used to be as tired when I got up as when I went to bed. I had fainting spells and palpitation. It was my age. I found a Lydia E. Pinkham booklet in my mail box and I started taking the Vegetable Compound three times a day. I am now a well woman. Three of my neighbors know what it did for me so they are taking it too. I will write to any woman if Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help her as it did me."—Mrs. H. C. Henry.

Daily Proverb—'Our pleasant vices are made the whip to scourge us.'

Mr Morrow naturally would go back to Mexico City. He's not the kind of a man who would be willing to leave a job unfinished.

Yet when all is said any dry who hoped for the nomination of dry Mr Fort in wet New Jersey must have been a blown in the bottle optimist.

Let's award the honors for the year's best epigram to Channing Pollock who says that 'a critic is a legless man who teaches running.'

A young colored man who stole a ham was sentenced by in Atlanta Georgia judge to twenty years on the chain gang the maximum term for a second offense. Wonder what that judge's idea of a fitting sentence for a major crime may be?

Schlee and Brock made the 2 111 mile flight from Jacksonville, Florida to San Diego California in thirteen hours and fifty four minutes bettering the record of nineteen hours and ten minutes by over five hours and a quarter. That isn't merely the breaking of a record. It's lopping off the time in hunks.

Benito Mussolini says that 'wars are what the forethought or lack of forethought of our fathers made us.' Now this is a real surprise. We have always understood that Benito was self made.

Four and a quarters of the Fourth Liberty loan went within an eighth of 104 this week a new high for the year and within a fraction of five cents over the low mark during the Wall Street panic. Buying government bonds is no way to get rich over night but the investment has the recommendation of safety, and that means a whole lot to the man of limited means.

Led by a girl described as beautiful six masked bandits held up a bank in Warsaw Poland and got away with the equivalent of $56 250 in our money. Evidently American bandit methods are gaining a foothold in foreign lands.

Tribute to Character and Ability

The nomination of Dwight W Morrow by the Republicans of New Jersey as their candidate for the United States senator by a plurality of approximately 400 000 is rather a sweeping vote of confidence in the high personal character of the man and his ability than a tribute to his wetness. As a matter of fact the present ambassador to Mexico is not personally wet but dry his wetness consisting in his belief which he proclaimed throughout his campaign that the handling of the liquor problem should be returned to the states, that prohibition as at present enforced is inimical to the best interests of the country. That this wetness was not the one factor in bringing about his nomination is made evident by the fact that although he made the repeal of the eighteenth amendment the one great issue of his campaign he ran as well in such dry districts as there are in his state as he did in the wet districts and carried every county.

Let it not be taken that it is held out here in that Mr Morrow could have been nominated in New Jersey by the plurality he attained, or anything approaching it, had he been a pronounced dry. It would have been something closely akin to a miracle had a dry candidate received the vote given him. His stand for the repeal of the prohibition amendment no doubt was a mighty factor in accomplishing his victory. At the same time the votes he received in dry districts must be taken to indicate that the character of the candidate as well as his position on the liquor question was given consideration and won for him many dry votes.

In other words the nomination may be taken to indicate that the Republicans of New Jersey have led the way in manifesting recognition of the fact that character and ability are the vital requisites in the selection of a candidate rather than his position on the liquor question, and that it is a duty which every state owes to itself and the other states of the commonwealth to send to the United States senate men of the highest class that the proportion of men of approved worth may overtop the commonplace and protect the country from the follies of the misfits and incompetents.

Summed up it may be said that the candidacy of Dwight W Morrow, overwhelmingly indorsed by the voters of his party and given the pledge of support by the President has dissipated the opprobrium which has been associated with opposition to prohibition and bestowed on such opposition the mantle of respectability.

Ground for Resentment.

Citizens of Marion have a good reason to resent the attempt of the interests representing or controlling the Marion Water company to secure from the state board of health approval of its plan to enlarge its water supply in part or in whole from the Little Scioto river instead of making extensive use of its present source of supply.

The purity of the water the company is now lifting from the deep wells out at its plant is beyond question. What it might draw from what goes by the name of the Little Scioto river which used to be not much more than a creek across which one might leap in places during the dry season and which is now not much more than a big ditch is open to question.

What the purpose behind the plan may be is not definitely known. If it is as some conjecture so to lessen the cost of producing the water supply it is without adequate excuse for the reason that the company is charging an unreasonably high price for its water. If that rate is so high as to have lost to the company a considerable portion of its former patronage and made the operation of the plant unprofitable it is not the fault of the community but that of the company and its agents due to the rapacity of those who insisted upon the rate to which it may be said the Marion public submitted in the belief that the present pure water supply would be utilized.

If it is developed that the river water plan is in any way connected with the proposal to unload the water plant upon the city if it is developed that the design is to scare the city into the purchase of the plant to prevent the substitution of a necessarily polluted source of water supply it is a wretchedly poor one. In the event of such a development it would probably knock the purchase plan into a cocked hat.

Should the company secure the necessary approval for the new water plan and carry it into execution it would not be good business judgment for the city to buy at a fancy price when the same good business judgment would tell it that in the natural course of events, a further loss of patronage might so affect the company's business that the plant might be secured at the city's price.

But in addition to this threat to the purity of the city's water supply citizens have ground for resentment over the failure of the Water company interests to come out into the open with their plan to substitute river water for well water if not before at least at the time they approached the state health department with their plan. City officials and members of the city council claim that they were kept in the dark regarding the design of the Water people. If such in the case and there is no apparent reason to doubt that it is the course of the Water people has not been such as to entitle it to public esteem. Stealth seldom if ever elicits respect particularly when practiced by a public utility corporation in dealings with a community which it serves or has contracted to serve.

United States District Judge Robert R Nevin of Dayton a member of the 1898 class of the University of Cincinnati who enlisted in the Spanish American war just before his graduation did not receive his bachelor of laws degree until last Saturday. Thirty two years ago the degree would have been a distinction to the recipient today it is a distinction to the university awarding it.

Ambassador Dawes says Chicago doesn't need any defense and he's right about it. What Chicago needs is an emetic band of vigilantes not oversensitive about the methods it adopts for throwing fear into the hearts of the city's criminal element.

Former Governor James M Cox has been making a lot of addresses recently the last being one before the convention of the National Association of Retail Grocers in session in Dayton Tuesday. As he has side stepped nominations for both the governorship and the United States senate the natural conclusion is that the Hon James has a sort of a hunch that the National Democracy will be looking about one of these days for presidential timber.

Dean Inge may be a gloom spreader but he mixes a lot of truth with it. By way of example here's this one. In theology as in practical politics there is a great temptation to take a season ticket on the line of least resistance and call it statesmanship.

Senator Johnson of California lost out on his little scheme to hold up the London naval treaty until the President submitted the correspondence between Washington and London and other documents pertaining to the treaty negotiations. Our old friend Uncle Hiram should get next to the fact that even the senate is tiring of those of its members who seek to hold themselves in the public eye by ceaseless opposition to this that and the other.

One of these days the suspicion may develop that a lot of the kidnaping stories coming from the larger cities are the alibis of those who have been away for a week or two making whoopee.

One of the government's witnesses in the $1 000 000 counterfeiting case in Brooklyn has been murdered. With crime organized as it is today there should be no delay in bringing the accused to trial. Delay simply gives opportunity to the criminal world to get rid of those in position to testify against its members.

Instead of paying in United States government securities in which case the payments automatically go to the reduction of the public debt thirteen foreign governments this week paid into the treasury amounts aggregating $117 111 598 24 with the result that the end of the fiscal year will probably show a surplus of $100 000 000 instead of a deficit as deemed possible. Threatened deficits has so invariably turned out to be surpluses under Secretary Mellon's financing that the country is acquiring the view that there ain't no such animule as a deficit.

SCHUMANN HEINK

A prima donna is something more than a voice—something more in fact than a woman with a voice. To a real temperamental prima donna should be given the privileges of the spoiled child of the world she should have something of the ugly duckling in her. There should be true sweetness in her character and that is all operagoers in America will testify was and doubtless still is, true of Mme Schumann Heink but first loves of great divas are indeed like Mistress Ford she is seemed at times to have twenty lives in her. And now at sixty nine Mme Schumann Heink is still singing and has thirty engagements before her. Belonging to the heavenly choir she is loth to quit. I could not retire she says until I lost my voice. I want to be useful I want to go on singing. One can believe her when she says that she wants to die singing—not on the stage in a manner to create a disturbance, but as it were quietly with a song on her lips. And there are plenty who can believe that that would not be the end of her singing.

Mme Schumann Heink was never of those prima donnas who pout and enact musical scorn. In concert work she never kicked the piano stool out of her way as the present writer once saw a famous prima donna of a very famous prima donna who never less soon vanished from the stage and is now remembered only as a name. Mme Schumann Heink does not vanish. She abides. It is a blessed principle of the vocal art that a wonderful voice whose proper and superlative use has once been thoroughly mastered often lasts into old age. But we believe that to make it so there must be character at its will to use. With a woman so doubly endowed it is never a case of toxic practicis ahill. And at least it is not so much with Schumann Heink.

Just what proportion of survival of the full quality of her early and middle age voice this beloved singer still records in her song we shall not attempt to say but we're sure that she was last night listen'd to by many thousands with delight and that her strains will echo long and sweet because they echo in the heart as well as in the ear. She says it was a little hard to sing 'Oh Rest in the Lord' because so much came up in her throat. But there is her appeal in these performances. So much in the case of those who through so many years heard her gladly rises from the heart and gather to the eyes. It is the appeal of pure sentiment of one with a tone that is still sweet—if not so full and sweet as once it was in its musical quality at least as full and sweet in its memories. I've come at last says to youth! Here is the sort of youth that challenges the years.—Boston Transcript June 10.

NOT HER BUT EX

The present acclaimed king of Roumania put upon its own resource probably could neither read nor hold down a job as night watchman in the employ of a village glue factory. The accident of birth the strange stirring of circumstance has given him possession of wealth and heirship to a throne. He chooses to follow in the footsteps of other such incongruously gilded royal mediocrities who have been kicked from their puppet thrones by peoples whose money they had misused whose sense of morals and decency they had outraged whose material interests they had betrayed in the pursuit of rhumbery riot and rotten retrogression to the cheap sympathy of the panderer who's soul most deeply is stirred by the embrace and ragged laughter of Caprian comradeship.

The most of these royal misfits have been ejected from the stage of human affairs. The next will go. In Roumania it should be not Carol but Lupescu.

A complacent Holy synod just has declared Princess Helene's divorce of three years ago to be morally invalid—to please the program of the king who in the meantime provides a suitable sanctuary residence in his capital for his paramour.

The entire tawdry picture discusses the world. There is no promise for the little kingdom under the Carol sort of rulership. There is at least a possibility that Prince Charles second son of Albert and Elizabeth of Belgium may be offered the Roumanian throne. If he is of the number of his royal parents in the event of his ruler ship he may be rescued from a dominant incubus which already too long has repressed and corroded that for sovereignty's possible worthy destiny.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Avoid Living in High

BY ROYAL S COPELAND M D

When your doctor tells you some member of your family has nephritis you are greatly distressed. Of course the disease is serious but it is not to class nephritis with the incurable diseases. On the other hand you can not be careless. The greatest care in diet and habits should be exercised.

General inflammation of the kidneys is called Bright's disease. It is named after Dr Richard Bright an English physician who first described the association of symptoms in 1827.

High blood pressure the presence of albumen in the urine and frequently dropsy may indicate the existence of nephritis. This is not always true however. Many persons have high blood pressure without a kidney condition. Albumen in the urine may indicate worry, dietary, nervousness or some other temporary disturbance.

An acute attack of Bright's disease may be brought on by exposure to cold or by taking certain poisons. It may be a complication of some acute disease such as erysipelas diphtheria and especially scarlet fever.

The onset of the disease is usually severe in character. There is pain in the back, dizziness and puffiness of the face swelling of the ankles. After sometimes nausea and vomiting.

The urine is scanty and abnormal in color. There are chemical changes which can be determined only by an analysis.

The utmost care must be exercised in the treatment of a person showing symptoms of Bright's disease.

The patient must remain in bed usually between blankets to stimulate the action of the skin. The diet is mild—often confined to milk. Large quantities of water and alkaline drinks are given to help flush the kidneys. It is essential to set up sweating and free kidney action to carry off the poisons. Your doctor will prescribe the proper medication and will oversee the general care.

Living at high speed and overeating must be avoided if we want to keep well. But late hours over indulgence in food or drink strenuous mental exercise and excessive fatigue are all factors in the development of Bright's disease—Copyright 1930 Newspaper Feature Service Inc.

Air, the Essential.

BY ARCHIBALD HENDERSON

Air is the original and prime essential of human life. Without it the best of men would perish without the means for continued existence. Without it not one of us could breathe for more than a brief period. The ancients of the wind are pulled in the vital attributes as death defying weapon of the air.

Galileo—1564 to 1642—discovered the material nature of air by discovering that a globe filled with compressed air increased in weight an English scientist Mayhow—1640 to 1679—showed that air was chiefly a mixture of two gases one of which he gave no name. In 17— Rutherford an Englishman discovered that animals kept in a closed space for some time changed a part of ordinary air into a gas which clouded limewater.

Mayhow's two gases are now known were oxygen and nitrogen. Rutherford's gas we now know to be carbon dioxide. Air must be a gas since it is clearly not either a solid or a liquid. However air may be liquified by subjecting it both to low temperatures and extreme pressures.

Liquid air is so cold that a piece of ice dropped into it acts like a red hot iron plunged into a bucket of cold water. Thus we see that the terms hot and cold are after all only relative.

Oxygen is a vital agent in generating chemical energy. It gives us the pep necessary to perform various feats from lifting a heavy weight to turning a handspring. But energetic as human beings are they are surpassed in energy by other living objects. A Frenchman Parbon has estimated that man with his 70 cubic centimeters consumed per kilogram of weight is vastly surpassed by the chicken 50 the dog 911, the fly 6 09 and the bee 1 435.

The name of Priestley the English scientist is held in especial reverence here since he spent the latter years of his life in this country. It is generally accepted that he was the first man in history to publish the results of his experiments specifically on August 1 1774 in preparing oxygen. He produced the gas by heating mercuric oxide a compound of mercury and oxygen by concentrating the sun's rays on the substance by means of a reading lens. As Paulie C Beery says in Stuff Lavoisier discovered that if all the products formed when any substance burns are collected and weighed the substance during burning actually combines chemically with the part of the air that he named oxygen.

This colorless odorless gas oxygen has become an indispensable adjunct to modern industry. Today a billion cubic feet of oxygen are produced every year for commercial purposes. Its chief commercial use is for the welding and cutting of metals but there are various other uses to which it is put—for emergency use in submarines and airplanes in mine rescue work and in medicine for sustaining impaired lung action.

Nitrogen as a matter of fact, comprises about four fifths of the volume of air. It serves equally well as a salutary and as a destructive agent. It nourishes or it kills. As a plant food nitrogen is absolutely essential. It is likewise an essential ingredient of gun powder and high explosives. Air however is composed of other ingredients than nitrogen oxygen and carbon dioxide. Ramsay Rayleigh and others discovered that considerably less than two per cent of air is composed of five rare inert gases argon krypton xenon neon and helium.—Copyright 1930 Newspaper Feature Service Inc.

New York Day by Day.

BY O O McINTYRE

New York June 19—It has been thirty years since Hetty Green passed from the sight and despite she was one of the most amazing women America has produced she was not until recently the full length subject of her life was attempted—a volume by Boyden Sparks and Samuel Taylor Moore.

A very New York reporter found in Mrs Green one of the most positive personalities she ever encountered. There were moments when she was garrulous but as a rule he gave gentlemen of the press a pretty broker look accompanied by a disdainful sniff and flounced from the room.

Her predatory predilections were an inheritance from her father, known as Black Hawk a whaling master in New Bedford Massachusetts. I once accompanied a group from Park Row to her cheap flat in Jersey City. She was away and we waited outside in a chill drizzle for her return.

When she arrived her manner was amiable although she complained of the mud being brought to her doorsteps. Then some one asked her an inopportune question. Her face clouded and her mouth framed a shrewish retort but in lieu she bustled into her room and slammed the door.

There have been many acrimonious articles written about the so called witch of Wall Street and the relentless pursuit of her god—money. Yet a powerful financier of our days says she minded her own business better than any woman he ever knew.

Her objection to people was largely because she had so often been the victim of designations. Her life in the end became a torment of suspicion and in the last days almost the whole of her affections were centered on an asthmatic toothless dog.

Mrs Green's will was adamantine but had her soft moments. Her husband indulged in some spectacular losses in Wall Street plunging on credit. She cast him off but not before she had paid every penny of his debts. Her life was an epic of the unhappiness wealth so often brings.

This has been an off year for the book publishing business. Few books have sold more than 1 000 copies and an author turns handsprings along the main plaisance if sale reaches 2a 000. The Way of the World

BY GROVE PATTERSON

In 1929 the United States took part in forty eight international conferences according to the state department register. United States belongs to twenty two international commissions. The seas no longer isolate us. What would George Washington say? Did he ever dream that his country would participate to such a degree in the affairs of all the world? And yet fundamentally we have followed the advice of Washington. We belong to no entangling alliances. We are not members of the League of Nations or even the World Court.

It isn't disappointment or discouragement that kills us off. It isn't hard luck failure bad business and the like which get us down. Nothing can really get us down but our own spirit. It is not the event itself that has power. It is our reaction to the event. So long as we keep the spirit to go on come what will fail though we sometimes do are moving somewhere. It is when the spirit fails when we give up the aim and the purpose and the ideal that we are through.

Belief Clevelanders Reported Drowned Are Still Alive Gains Ground.

By The Associated Press

CLEVELAND O June 19—While an airplane and coast guard units searched today for the bodies of three men reported drowned in Lake Erie near here Saturday more strength was given to the theory that the men are still alive

Cleveland police who investigated the drowning were told that Roy Lindroth coast guardsman saw two youths in a boat similar to that from which the three were reported drowned about 1 a m or some time after Miss Olive France 24 their companion said their boat capsized Lindroth said his coast guard boat cruising the lake steered close to the other craft and as it drew near the youths shouted some joking remarks

The police investigation was started when William H Brown of Pittsburgh father of William Brown one of the youths said to have drowned expressed his doubts that the boat would sink

Despite the theory that the men are alive there has been revealed no motive for their sailing away and leaving Miss France to an uncertain fate in the water

By The Associated Press

DALLAS Tex June 19—Denying that friendship for a Dallas professional man brought her here Clara Bow the "It" girl of the movie today told the Associated Press staff men tales of southern hospitality she had found her to Texas

Desiring a rest between pictures Miss Bow said she sought a quiet place where she could get away from Hollywood

"I'm tired of it all We had so many friends here who had begged us to try southern hospitality we decided on a moments notice to come to Dallas and many of our closest friends didn't know it

Referring to published reports that she had made a $ 0 000 settlement of a threatened $150 000 alienation of affections suit by a Dallas woman wife of the professional man hearing in the story Miss Bow declared

POSSIBLE INCOME TAX INCREASE INDICATED

Signs of Boost for Next Year Seen in View of Situation at Washington.

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON June 19—Washington is wondering, if income tax rates are to be higher next year

Prospective expenditures for the next fiscal year are already estimated to exceed the total government income expected within that period From present indications in fact the nation faces the threat of a deficit on July 1, 1931

The one per cent reduction of taxes on incomes of 1929 those paid this year, was a temporary measure only It took the form of a joint congressional resolution instead of the usual tax revision measure and unless action is taken to prolong its life the rates on incomes of 1930 will revert to the level of those of 1928

Treasury officials are watching the situation closely but decline to express an opinion on whether the reduction can be extended A final decision will be reached in the fall

In his budget message of last December President Hoover estimated the fiscal year 1931 would close with a surplus of $122 788 960 Since then the Spanish War Pensions bill approved over his veto has added $160 000 000 to prospective expenditures and the expense of the farm board now are set at $100 000 000 more than was then expected

Here's a letter written Oct 21 1929 by Mrs Ted Barringer of Lewistown Montana that ought to be read by every overweight woman in America

Gentlemen I first saw your advertisement in Billings Montana paper and decided to try Kruschen Salts

I started taking them every morning as directed and was very much overweight and wanted to reduce

I have recommended Kruschen Salts to many of my friends in fact have a number of them taking Kruschen Salts

Serv U Wel Grocers remain to shout the only obstacle to block the Kappas march to the Commercial League championship as a result of the Shovel A A's surprise defeat at the hands of the Prospect firemen by the decisive score of 7 to 4 last night. The grocers stayed a game behind the fraternity team by stopping the K of P outfit 10 to 5. Kappas and Company B were awarded easy wins when the Excavator and Star failed to show up for scheduled engagements.

Bert Curtis has his Serv U Wel nine out battling the Kappas team for game and with the first round over 5 months gone the loop leaders are only a lone game ahead. The only hit the grocers have lost is their game with the Kappas early in the season. The second place aggregation has the whole town talking, and unless they suffer a severe collapse against the Shovel next week they'll enter the second round about 4 or 5 to 8 shot to cop the loop pennant. They are strangely confident that they can defeat the Kappas in their second round game and strange enough the leaders aren't saying a whole lot but are just sitting tight which is a pretty good thing to do.

Nine In One Frame

One big inning, bent the Pythians the grocers touring nine runs in a big, fifth frame rally. Five hits, three passes on balls and a few errors turned the trick. Altogether the winners solved Bab Peadon for nine hits while the losers were toiling to Somerlot for two less. The defeat sent K of P crashing into a three-way tie for fifth place with one game won in four starts. However they are still dangerous and may spoil the plans of the championship bound teams any old time.

The 7 to 4 walloping of the Shovel lets by Prospect tied the two teams for third place a game behind Serv U Wel and two full games behind the Kappas. The tilt was close with the winners outhitting the Diggers 5 to 7. Both teams had three bobbles but Dutch Lauer was much more able than Cook Clark and Lashey in the matter of scattering the hits. The losers had to wait until the seventh inning to score three runs off Lauer while the Foreman hit steadily to core in three different frames. Shovel can practically clinch the championship for the Kappas by defeating Serv U Wel tomorrow night.

THE SPORT BUG
BURLEY

OLIVER of the Red Sox is making Boston fans and others recall Tris Speaker in the great Cleveland Indians sensational center fielding hard socking youth. What finer tribute could be paid to a rookie! And all statistics thus far bear out the justice of such fine estimates. Batting at a 350 clip and fielding splendidly, Tom seems the best bet apparent to Speaker's historic popularity after hardly more than two months of big league play. Almost right off the reel he hit safely for 17 consecutive games and fell off mum. He started badly even though the Sox fell into a fearful slump after a brilliant start. He looms as a real star.

Of course some critics hold that Oliver has not yet been subjected to the big leagues thorough test which really comes with the hot summer months. That's the period when many an early season whirlwind blows up and away or becomes a mere breeze. The spring may produce what looks like a Speaker who when fall comes is lucky to warm a big league bench. But you can't tell. Boston fans prognosticating such a fate for their latest pride.

Oliver came to the Red Sox from the Little Rock club via the Athletics who shipped him on to the Hub because Connie Mack has a great outfield. Tom was a success in the Southern League for his three or four seasons there coming originally from his native Montgomery. Ala as a boy wonder. He was 20 years old last January is six feet tall and weighs 185 pounds an athletic type always in condition.

This Bama boy's batting stance is his only conspicuous peculiarity. He faces the pitcher almost square on as Heine Groh once the greatest of lead off men used to do. Tom can see better that way he explains. Remarkable sight combined with great agility permits him to take sharp cuts at the ball in a way productive of many a sizzling single and double.

The Grob, incidentally. Oliver's long suit is the single. His stance and swing is not of the slugging sort thus far.

Al Simmons Athletic ace and Chuck Klein the Phillies Ruth are other stars who utilize unorthodox batting stances the feet in the back of fault in no wise muffling their war clubs.

M'MURTY, K. O. TERRY IN MAIN-GO OF NEXT STEAM SHOVEL SHOW

Southern Ohio Lightweights Expected To Put on Great Scrap Week from Tonight

Thirty two rounds of boxing including a four round curtain raiser between Thunder and Lightning two 12 year old colored boys, will be presented to local night fans in the next Steam Shovel card scheduled for Thursday night June 26 in the Shovel gymnasium. The Shovel Athletic association is promoting the show in cooperation with Jack Bachman southern Ohio boxing promoter.

K O Terry of Portsmouth ring state light weight champ will oppose Jesse McMurty of Cincinnati in the 10 round main go script. These two boys are noted for their willingness to mix it and should present a great battle with some action and a little more real honest to goodness hitting. Terry is undefeated in 26 starts his most recent accomplishment being a 10 round draw last Monday night in Indianapolis with Jose Gonzales lightweight champ of Mexico.

8 Round Semi Final

For the eight round semi final bout Tommy Rodgers of Huntington W Va will meet Buddy Hall of Cincinnati. The latter will spot Rodgers two pounds in this bout. Hall will weigh in at 128 pounds and his opponent at 130. This bout will be preceded by a six round scrap between George Barber of Portsmouth and Jerry O'Toole. The latter will weigh 132 and Barber will match him with 136 pounds of loaded dynamite. These boys come highly touted as good sluggers.

The second four round preliminary will find Johnny Devlin of Hamilton Ontario meeting Jed Dawson of Fullerton Ky. Devlin is carded at 116 pounds and his opponent at 115. Little is known about the quality or quantity fighting these lighter boys put up but some of these fighters from old Kaintuck can use their dukes to good advantage.

Colored Kids Good

The four round curtain raiser between the two colored boys has been a scream everywhere they have performed. They don't know a whole lot about scientific boxing but they are certainly well versed in the manly art of self defense. Just a case of slug or get slugged with these youngsters and neither one has any particular desire to get slugged.

The main go looks plenty good right now although McMurty will have the all important advantage of years of experience that Terry has yet to find out. However the K O kid has exhibits not had any great trouble in disposing of his opponents so far and he sees no good reason for not doing the same with Mr McMurty. This self same Mr McMurty may have something to say about that but we don't propose to do so and about the best thing to do in a case like that is to sit tight and await developments.

The defeat of the Shovel A A team at the hands of the Prospect Firemen last evening was a bit unexpected but still was more or less to be looked for. There was little doubt but that the Diggers were playing a little over their head and it was just a question of time until they dropped from the heights. The Serv U Wel grocers now remain as the single threat against the march of the Kappas to the championship and they may turn out to be more than a threat. If the grocers can hurdle the Shovel nine tomorrow evening they'll be sitting pretty for the second round of games.

HOME RUNS GIVE A'S WIN OVER FERRELL

Indians Drop Further in Race as Their Ace Loses to Leaders by 7-to 2 Score.

BY HUGH S FULLERTON Jr
Associated Press Sports Writer

The National league clubs of the east which are just opening their second southern tour found surprisingly less to come home but it is rather doubtful whether they will continue on the road.

The New York Giants who routed their last several opponents to the tune of nine victories in 12 games at the Polo Grounds had a large amount of trouble yesterday in taking their first game of the four from the Pittsburgh Pirates 3 to 2 but fell out of 13 games from here. In that count was 11 to for New York and it took a sparkling unexpected ninth inning rally by Higbe Critz to tie the game before the Pirates had tied the score.

An injured left Walker Grant southpaw and a sudden weakening of Heinie Mine brought up the team in which the Giants led 1 0 for six innings. Meine let down in the seventh and gave three runs on four hits. Pittsburgh promptly replied to collecting a run an inning in the last three frames. They had the lying counter on second when Critz grabbed Paul Waner's liner and doubled Grantham of the keystone sack.

As Win Easily

In the American league the eastern leading pennant contenders had their own although they were pulled down from the heights they had reached before they invaded the western half of the circuit. The east came out ahead 6 games to 5. Among the western clubs Cleveland won eight out of 12. Cleveland had a chance yesterday to oust the world's champions from first place but even their pitching ace Wes Ferrell could not stop the Athletics in a crucial moment. The As inside a dozen hits one of them in two big innings and equalled an American league record for home run hitting in winning a 7 decision.

Al Simmons Jimmy Foxx and Bing Miller connected with Ferrell's deliveries in the fifth inning for three successive home runs a feat that had been performed only twice before in American history drove Ferrell from the mound and put the game and the league lead in a safe place. The As had scored three runs in the first of each of three hits while Roy Spencer Mahaffey youthful right hander pitched effectively all the way.

Critics Say Godfrey Looks Slow as Camera Battle Comes Near

By International News Service

PHILADELPHIA Pa June 19—While George Godfrey Philadelphia colored heavyweight and Primo Camera hug. It has reached the peak of training, today for their fight here Monday night it was announced Max Schmeling, would witness the bout.

Schmeling who won from Jack Sharkey of Boston last week on a foul which is expected to see him crowned officially as world's heavyweight champion will positively attend according to his manager Joe Jacobs. Gene Tunney of New York former heavyweight champion will also watch the battle which is scheduled for ten rounds at the Phillies ball park.

Tunney will be a member of the party of Barney Gimbel New York millionaire whose guests will include Eddie Rickenbacker world war aviation ace and Charles Francis Coe author.

At Chester Pa where Godfrey is training the experts reported the negro appeared slow and seemed to have lost all his speed and former cunning. Godfrey said he was not training for speed and was building up his strength to match the weight and force of the huge Italian.

Camera planned a hard workout today.

CALVARY TO TACKLE LEE STREET IN GAME FOR CHARITY JULY 9

Second Annual Y. M. C. Camp Benefit Game To Be Played at Lincoln

Plenty of fun is expected to when Calvary and Lee Street of the outstanding ball teams in Sunday school leagues meet Wednesday July 9 at Lincoln Park in annual Marion benefit game the proceeds of which will be used to send a boy and a girl to the Y M C A summer camp at Hepburn. These teams were chosen by the baseball commission to play the game at a meeting Monday night and the managers signified their willingness to play yesterday.

The first event game was played last summer with the Kappa Mens and Steam Shovel teams of Commercial leagues opposing each other. The game in itself was a thriller and entirely satisfactory to the crowd attended but the crowd was small what of a disappointment. The game between the two church teams of course in every way is good a game should draw much better.

At first glance it seems all the stars especially after their impressive 7 to 1 victory over John Clark's previously undefeated team last Tuesday night at Lincoln. However Lee Street is still undefeated in the No 2 league and does not show any immediate signs of losing any games for a while. The Streeters have had plenty of hard luck in the past three seasons and would have been up in the league championship after last year's Loop. Twice they have just missed the league championship after losing out of the way.

Calvary's power is well known little need be said about its members. Niemeyer Baldauf brothers and Myron Gibson speak for themselves in any man's ball game. Lee Street has a hard hitting fielding aggregation that will cause the Calvary pitchers and catchers plenty of trouble. They have heads up baseball all the time and is after all the big thing. All against this team is just too tough.

The football field at the University of Washington has been covered with sod for the first time.

"Clear up your skin, dear, and you will be popular, too"

If you desire a clear skin you must keep your blood in good condition

Skin troubles and sallow complexion speak of body weakness — a deficiency in the red blood cells

A lovely, clear skin is within your reach

WITH the last blemish gone, confidence returns. More friends, more invitations—more good times. With the joy and pride of possessing a clear skin, self-respect increases.

A lovely, clear skin is within the reach of all. To you who have lost it, hope is offered, that you, too, may have a beautiful skin, rose petal in texture, pretty as a picture and without a single pimple.

Skilled physicians recognize the appearance of skin eruptions as being an indication that the body's power of resistance is low.

The natural way to remedy this condition is to restore the red blood cells to normal.

This is why so many thousands have been enabled to free themselves of these unsightly blemishes and painful skin annoyances by taking a course of SSS.

SSS helps Nature restore the blood to its normal state. Healthy blood nourishes the body and works against infection and disease.

Without plenty of rich, red blood there would be no strong, sturdy, powerful men, or healthy, beautiful women.

If you are troubled with so called skin disorders, take a few bottles of SSS.

SSS

may be found in every good drug store in America. Thousands of users have testified to its benefits in unsolicited letters of gratitude. Seek energy, vitality and a clear skin through the tested, which is made from strictly fresh vegetable drugs and has stood the test for over 100 years. Sold in two sizes. Ask for the larger size. It is more economical.

That seal is your protection against cheap oil substitution Do not accept Tiolene if the seal has been broken or tampered with

35c a quart—and worth more

These percentages are conservative Available to all who request it—the facts as given in the report of certified public accountants commissioned to investigate the marketing conditions of the oil industry over a two year period For your copy of these oil substitution facts address Pure Oil Company, Pure Oil Building, Chicago, Ill*

Tiolene

PENNSYLVANIA OIL

now dispensed in

Sealed Bottles

STRICT investigations have been made Unbiased authorities have found that in some instances substitution of cheap oil runs as high as 39% to 40% of all motor oil sales

Often, when best oils are asked for and paid for, cheapest oils—in some instances strained crank case drainings—are supplied Think of the resulting damage to motors

True, only dealers without conscience engage in this practice But how are you to know who and where they are?

A new method protects you

There is now an easy, certain way to be on your guard against motor oil substitution Ask for Tiolene, in Sealed Bottles.

This 100% Super Pennsylvania Motor Oil, made from the finest grade Pennsylvania crude, is now poured into your car from substitution proof sealed bottles Every bottle is filled and sealed in Pure Oil Company plants—and delivered sealed to your local station

You see the seal of every bottle broken and destroyed You drive away, feeling a security which motorists have never before enjoyed

Don't be in doubt! Don't take chances! The penalty you pay for cheap oil substitution is far too costly

Stop at a Pure Oil blue and white sign today Say "Tiolene in Sealed Bottles" You get the oil that gives better protection for 1,000 miles than ordinary oils give for 500

Dealers and service station salesmen who sell Tiolene want you to have this absolute protection against cheap-oil substitution.

TUNE IN on the Pure Oil Radio Hour every Tuesday night—over 20 N B C stations See local papers for time.
